Governor's Report

Being responsible for the Governor's duties for the past year has cemented how proud I am to be a 99. Women in this New England Section have come forth and volunteered to take on projects enthusiastically and without prompting.

The Poker Run is the first example: it was run without any flying, nor were there any expenses. The profit was substantial, as you will read in the Poker Run report by Glenna Blackwell.

The three Chapter Chairs, Jessie Zuberek, Eastern New England Chair, Ashley Harrison, Connecticut Chair, and Karissa Davan from the Katahdin Wings, are meeting once a month to compare notes and see how they can improve participation within the Section. Subjects of discussion include involving the 99s in community events and social events. This is new to all, and they have jumped right in.

Arlene Myers Alexander flew to Maine to visit with me and discussed how she would like to involve more of us in the Section. Profiles are on her mind and idea was readily accepted by me for discussion with our members. I look forward to your response to her report and thoughts.

Peggy Loeffler and Kathy Wadsworth are working hard raising monies for the New England Women's Museum and have almost reached their hefty fundraising goal.

The reports are attached to the agenda so you will have plenty of time to absorb them and prepare questions for us to discuss at the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Build, Governor
