

Governor's Message

Well, here it is. I've finished my book and will be bringing them to the Ninety-Nines Conference in Charleston and have a seat at the Author's Corner at Oshkosh (Monday, Tuesday at 10, and Thursday at 4). If you are not attending either and would like an autographed book, please be sure to let me know.

There is so much wonderful news this month, so I hope you have a chance to read about what all our wonderful women pilots are doing. Remember, showing others that you fly is the most impactful way to introduce another to flying.

Cheers. I hope to see you at the Conference. It's not often we have one on the East coast.

Mary
