Guest Speakers:

You don't want to miss our two Friday dinner Guest Speakers. Join Peggy Loeffler on a two-decade journey that started as a way to inspire young women to explore flight and developed into a wonderful Women in Aviation exhibit at the New England Air Museum. Terry VandenDolder is one of the many amazing aviatrixes highlighted in the museum exhibit. Join Lieutenant Colonel Teresa VandenDolder as she shares her story from Air Force Reserve Officer Training to Air Force flight training on to flying the C-141B "Starlifter", sharing memories of transports and top secret missions worldwide. There is so much more to her story you don't want to miss. Captain VandenDolder's second aviation career has been flying for American Airlines for 34 years. Join us as she shares memorable moments from both careers.

Ninety-Nines
Inspiring Women Pilots since 1929

We have changed registration procedures for the Spring Section.
 The meeting registration fee is $40, which covers the meeting room rental, expenses for our international representative, and meals for our guest speakers. We very much appreciate the two anonymous sponsors who helped defray the cost of the NEAM facility rental for Friday's dinner. Admission to the museum on Friday and Saturday is included with your dinner purchase of $90 per person.

We are using an online registration through Cheddar Up.
Please follow the link below to enter your information.

Once you have made your selections and entered your information you will be taken to the payment page. You will have the option of paying by credit card or by check. If paying by check it is not necessary to send in a printed copy of the registration form.
 Please make checks out to "Eastern New England Ninety-Nines" and mail to Susan Benua, 19 Brook Ln, Berlin, MA 01503-1671.

If you are unable to register online, please provide your information in the form below, and mail it with your check as noted above.
