Conference Corner

The New England Section nominated one of our members for the International Award of Achievement for Contributions to Aviation. The winner for Habitat for Aviation, our speaker at the Fall Section Meeting, and at the Upcoming International Conference - is Beth White! Here is her reply on learning she was chosen:

Hello,

I got the most unexpected call from Robin Hatfield who told me that I was nominated and chosen for the international award. I am totally blown away and so honored. Thank you to my beloved ENE Ninety-Nines for thinking of me and for the nomination. I am grateful and humbled.

Can't wait to see you in July.

Warmly,
Beth

RIP, Corbi Bullock

Corbi Bullock, Immediate Past President of The Ninety-Nines and a big fan of the New England Section, passed away on April 7, 2025. Corbi always enjoyed visiting our Section as the International Representative and even attended at least one New England Section meeting unofficially. Those of us who got to know her at those meetings and also at International Conferences will miss her greatly.
